SUMMARY:

Northwest Immigrant Rights Project (NWIRP) is seeking a temporary, full-time bilingual Legal Advocate (Spanish/English) to join our Wenatchee office. The position is available to begin immediately, but no later than August 1, 2025. The initial commitment extends through February 27, 2026, with the possibility of a three-month extension. Applicants must be fluent in both English and Spanish; proficiency in additional languages is a plus.

Under the supervision of an attorney, the Legal Advocate will support the direct representation of immigrant community members and assist with designated outreach efforts across Washington State. The role primarily focuses on immigration cases involving protections for survivors of crimes—such as domestic violence—as well as asylum seekers, individuals in removal proceedings, DACA and TPS applicants, family-based petitions, and immigrant children and youth. The Legal Advocate may also assist with other immigration matters as needed.

ABOUT NORTHWEST IMMIGRANT RIGHTS PROJECT:

Founded in 1984, Northwest Immigrant Rights Project (NWIRP) is a nationally-recognized legal services organization on the front lines of defending and advancing the rights of immigrants. With over 190 employees, NWIRP provides direct legal representation and assistance in immigration matters to thousands of people with low incomes who come from over 150 countries and speak over 60 different languages.

NWIRP challenges unjust policies through high-impact lawsuits and advocates for laws and policies that respect the rights of immigrants. NWIRP is also a trusted provider of immigration-related community education for immigrant communities and social service providers. NWIRP serves the community through four offices in Washington State (Granger, Seattle, Tacoma and Wenatchee), but the impact of our work is felt nationwide.

NWIRP's Wenatchee office is located in the heart of Washington State, at the confluence of the Columbia and Wenatchee rivers. The Wenatchee Valley metropolitan area includes a population of 119,000, offering a mix of big town amenities with small town vibes. With its scenic orchards and growing wine industry, Wenatchee also boasts easy access to rivers, lakes, hiking trails, and its own downhill ski resort. This office serves clients from Central and Northeastern Washington and its client base consists largely of agricultural workers and their families.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

Legal advocates are expected to:

- Under attorney supervision:
  - Conduct intakes, by phone and in person, and interview clients to gather or clarify information;
  - Assist in conducting case analysis to determine eligibility for immigration protections/status under the immigration laws;
  - Assist in providing consultations and direct representation, preparing and submitting immigration forms and supporting documents to immigration courts, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS), or other immigration agencies;
  - Assist in providing pro se assistance, community outreach and education, as directed;
- Maintain a working knowledge of significant policies, laws, practices, and trends in immigration law, particularly as it impacts low-income immigrants and those impacted by the criminal justice system;
- Establish, organize, and maintain files up to date;
- Translate documents;
- Perform data entry regarding the services provided to clients, including the preparation of monthly status reports;
- Perform administrative tasks related to grant reporting, such as timekeeping, submitting timesheets, tracking training, and other duties in a timely manner;
- Participate in NWIRP's outreach, community education and development efforts; and
- Perform other tasks and responsibilities assigned by supervisory staff depending upon NWIRP's needs.

SKILLS AND QUALIFICATIONS:

- Demonstrated commitment to advancing and defending the rights of immigrants and willingness to support NWIRP's mission, vision, and values;
- Fluency in English and Spanish, and additional languages are encouraged;
- Familiarity working with interpreters;
- Commitment to creating a welcoming, professional, and inclusive environment for staff and clients, and to working with a diverse community in a challenging environment;
- Excellent written and oral communication skills and ability to organize information in a clear and concise manner, including strong problem-solving, research, and analytical skills;
